HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION

Greensboro Police Detectives are investigating an apparent homicide at 2508 Fernbrook Drive. At approximately 5:45 P. M. on Sunday afternoon, police officers and emergency medical personnel responded to this location after a relative had summoned police. Inside the residence a husband and wife were found inside with injuries from an apparent assault. The female was pronounced dead on the scene and the male subject was transported to Moses Cone Hospital with injuries.

At this time the motive is unknown. Names are not being released pending the notification of next of kin. The investigation is continuing and we are asking that persons with information about this incident contact the Greensboro Police Department Criminal Investigation Division at 336-373-2255 or Crime Stoppers at 336-373-1000.
